The Taste of Daybreak on the Tip of My Tongue

Aki Ueda

Wakamura Senryu (28)

Sashikawa Akemi (23)

My name is Senryu, and this is my first time in Japan. I understand you very much for picking up "The Taste of Daybreak on the Tip of My Tongue".

After writing the first half of the book, I had to follow up on their story and write three more chapters so I could have a full book.

I wanted to write this story because once upon a time, I actually worked part-time at a ramen shop. These two may not seem to be deeply in love, but aside from the passion aspect, they actually have a really deep connection with each other. In all honesty, that kind of relationship is what I like most, so being able to draw that day and night was really fun. (Also, for me, Akemi was easy to draw, and my favorite type of uke.)

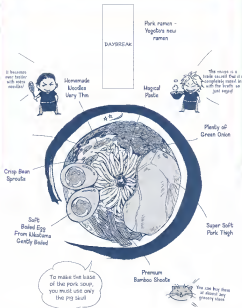

To all the readers who gave me their opinions, my boss A-sen (who was truly amazing when it came to influencing the title page), all my friends etc., you all did so much to help me when I was feeling overwhelmed and being a nuisance.

Thank you all so very much.

And so, thank you so much for reading this far. And finally, Senryu is pretty cool when he makes those firm noodles.
